

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 5th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

MILLIONS

Suffer from

Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their ill health can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished—becomes weak, thin, sluggish. All sorts of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression—even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal obstruction, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble—all of these can often be traced directly to acid-stomach. Keep a sharp lookout for the first symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating, that awful painful bloating after eating, and sour, gassy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach ills. Thousands say they never dreamed that anything could bring such speedy relief—and make them feel so much better in "very war." Try EATONIC, and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. Make your life worth living—no aches or pains—no blues or melancholy—no more of that tired, listless feeling. Be well and strong. Get back your physical and mental punch; your vim, vigor and vitality. You will always be weak and ailing as long as you have acid-stomach. So get rid of it now. Take EATONIC Tablets—they taste good—you eat them like a bit of candy. Your druggist has EATONIC—50 cents for a big box. Get a box from him today and if you are not satisfied he will refund your money.

Darkey's Peculiar Reason for Wanting Son to Be Easy on His "Pen Arm" for a While.

"George," said a Florida man not long ago to an old negro in his employ, "I understand that you intend to give your son an education."

"Dat's my intention, suh," responded George. "I know myself what 'tis to struggle along without learnin', an' I has determined my son ain't goin' to have no sich trouble as Ise had."

"Is your son learning rapidly?" "He shore is, suh. Las' week he done wrote a lettah to his aunt what lives more'n twenty miles from yere, an' afta while he's gub' to write to his aunt dat lives 'bout fifty miles from yere."

"Why doesn't he write to that aunt now?" smilingly asked his employe.

"He kaint write so fur yit, suh. He kin write twenty miles fur rate, but I tole him not to try fifty miles 'til he gets stronger wif his pen."—Jacksonville Times-Union.

The Evidence. Fair Overseas Visitor—And, my dear, they're just the cleanest boys you ever saw. Where Poor Sermons Come From. The little group on the steps of Sigmund's general store and post office were discussing the ministers' convention, then in session at the state capitol, and Squire Lane, who had been "assessed" for his share of Rev. Mr. Lamb's expenses, said that in his opinion there were a good many better ways of spending five days.

"Cheaper, too," he added feelingly. After a sign of sympathy had completed a circle of the little group, Joe Rollins, who in village estimate "wa'n't all there," asked "what they held them conventions for, anyway."

"They meet once a year to swap sermons," replied the Squire.

"Now I know why we get such poor ones!" said Joe, momentarily enlightened. "Mr. Lamb never did amount to anything in a trade."—Youth's Companion.

More Coming.

Buddy, my five-year-old commanding general had spent the day at the circus, chaperoned by his mother, and in the evening after I came home from the office he was telling me all about it. He paused in the middle of a glowing description of the clowns and everything to say: "Now, daddy, give me a penny and I'll tell you the else of it."—Chicago Tribune.

The Devastated Areas.

"Yes," observed the sergeant major (volunteer) to the unwilling working party (retainable), "some of you lads don't seem to realize that you're well off. You might be on the Rhine 'aving 'yours of 'ate sung at you all day long. You might be on the Somme, working side by side with Chinks and Jerries. Instead of 'good 'ere you are in lovely country, good society, beaucoup estaminays an' beaucoup mademoiselles. An' still you won't put your backs into it. Very well, if you want a change you shall 'ave one. I'll have the whole lot of you transferred to the demonstrated areas!" — Manchester Guardian.

Looking for a Telephone.

I was looking for a public telephone and thought I would find one in a large office building. I walked through and at last saw a public telephone sign, and as I was in a hurry I rushed through the doors and found myself in the middle of a saloon. The bartender looked up and said: "What'll you have, miss?" I was so surprised that I couldn't speak for a few minutes, but finally said I was looking for a public telephone. As I was backing out the elevator starter saw me and, as he knew me, asked if I was in for an eye-opener. I then decided my telephoning could wait, and rushed out of the building.—Exchange.

No Help.

"Now that the war is over I dare say your boy can write you where he is located in France."

"Oh, yes," said Mr. Cobbles, "but the information doesn't do me an' mother any good. He might just as well say he's 'somewhere in France'. The names of them French villages don't mean anything to people who've never been outside of the state they were born in."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

TRIED HARD TO SAVE PLAYMATE

Youngster's Heroic Effort to Air Companion in Flames Unavailing.

HER LAST EXPERIMENT

Old Story of the Fatal Attraction of Fire to the Childish Mind Is Repeated—Victim Dies in Delirium.

Chicago.—Despite the prompt attempts of two boys to save her, Wealthie Lunde, five-year-old girl, who played with a match, lies dead.

The accident occurred Sunday. About seven o'clock Wealthie, who is the daughter of a railroad bookkeeper living at 1327 Norwood street, came into the house.

"It's time for you to go to bed," she was told, but Wealthie wanted a few minutes more of play. There was a great experiment which she must try before she could sleep—an experiment with a match, which she is thought to have taken from a neighbor's apartment.

Found Writhing on Grate.

In about ten minutes Miss Lasette Calmetat, a guest of Wealthie's mother, heard screams coming from the direction of the alley. She rushed to the rear door, but by that time the sounds came from the front of the house. Hurrying to the sidewalk, she found little Wealthie writhing on the grass, severely burned. Two boys were bending over her.

Miles Devine, fourteen-year-old son of John J. Devine, 1248 Norwood street, was playing ball with James Fitzgerald, 1252 Norwood street, who is two years his junior.

"Suddenly," said Miles, "I heard screams, and she came running out between the houses. She was all asfire."

"I'm burning," she called. "Put me out! Put me out!"

"James was the nearest to her and she ran toward him. He tripped her, and we both rolled her on the grass to smother the flame. I beat out some of it with my hands. Then a man came along and carried her into the house."

In Delirium at End.

Miles said that he had learned how to handle such cases by reading the Boy Scout Manual, although he is not a member of that organization.

Wealthie's death occurred late Monday night at the Lakeview hospital. On the operating table she told her father how she had taken a match from a neighbor's home and lit a piece of paper with it.

But there were few moments of sane consciousness. Mostly she talked

Beat Out Some of It With His Hand.

In delirium of her playmates on the street. Sometimes she sang. Once in the voice of a girl over twice her age she chided the doctor for hurting her.

Hospital attendants recollect the following words verbatim, uttered just as she was dying:

"... Buster, let me play with your ball? ... Nurse, I think you are mean. Can't you see that you are hurting my arm? ... I think I had better go to the store and get a pound of butter, mother. I see that you need butter. ... Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray ..."

And so she died.

SHOOTS PIGEON; PAYS $47.50

St. Louis Man Loses After Argument With Bird's Owner in Court.

St. Louis, Mo.—Shooting a single pigeon has cost Philip Hommel of Belleville a total of $47.50.

The pigeon ate some of Hommel's garden seed and vegetables. Hommel killed it. Then Hommel got into an argument with Anton Sehlinger, owner of the bird.

He brought a charge of threatening to kill against Sehlinger. Justice Lautz ruled against Hommel in each of the four cases and the plaintiff was compelled to pay the costs, $36.20. Then Sehlinger sued Hommel for disturbing the peace and Judge Lautz assessed a fine of $11 and costs.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "passes off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Diseased conditions of kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame backs and other wrenching pains, which are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they instantly attack the poisonous germs clogging your system and bring quick relief.

For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.—Adv.

His Experience.

"Goodness gracious, Ysabelle! What sort of a butler is this new one you have? He admitted me with the most condescending unctious, strutted half-way across the reception room with all the dignified pomposity of a strolling behemoth, and then suddenly sagged down in a chair, produced and lit his pipe, flung his feet up on another chair and began scratching himself."

"Oh, you'll have to bear with Bliggins. All the experience he has had as a butler was in the movies, where he butted for the width of the scene, and then was at ease until he got his cue again. But doesn't he do it beautifully while he lasts?"—Kansas City Star.

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

In the good old summer time when fruits of all kinds are getting ripe and tempting, when cucumbers, radishes and vegetables fresh from the garden are too good to resist, when the festive picnic prevails and everybody overeats and your stomach goes back on you, then is the time for "August Flower," the sovereign remedy for tired, overworked and disordered stomachs, a panacea for indigestion, fermentation of food, sour stomach, sick headache and constipation. It gently stimulates the liver, cleanses the intestines and alimentary canal, making life worth living. Sold everywhere. Adv.

Joyful Occasion.

"My darling," said a fond mother, who believed in appealing to children's tender feelings instead of punishing them, "if you are naughty you will grieve mamma so that she will get ill and have to lie in bed in a dark room, and take nasty medicine; and then she may die and have to be taken away out to the cemetery and be buried, and you—"

The child had become more solemn, but an angelic smile overspread his face at his mother's last words and, throwing his arms about her neck, he exclaimed:

"Oh, mamma, and may I sit beside the coachman?"—London Tit-Bits.
